

Astral Projections

The series title, Astral Projections represents the meditative state when one's soul leaves the body and resides in the in-between.

There is energy, vibrancy and excitement; emotion that I cannot express in words, or in any other artistic medium.

This work, a complete departure from earlier portrait work, feeds me in a new way. Meditative and contemplative in nature, I am drawn to the abstract qualities and possibilities afforded by not quite understanding the whole truth.